The Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT), in partnership with the Virginia Department of Rail and Public Transportation (DRPT), will hold Public Information Meetings about plans to transform 25 miles of I-66 outside the Beltway into a multimodal corridor that provides congestion relief and new travel choices. Provide your input and learn about alternatives being evaluated for I-66 and key interchanges, including express lanes, high-frequency bus service with predictable travel times, and direct access to new or expanded commuter lots.
